Sept. 15. 1913

My Dear Sir,

One of my hymns is included in your Univ: Hymnal -

The days that were, the days that are.

I tried to obtain a copy of the book here, but the Publishers could not supply me with one. I would be glad if you kindly let me have a copy. Thanking you in anticipation I am

Yours faithfully

Rev. H. L. Lewis,

37 Highbury,

New Park, London N.

My dear Sir:

I have much pleasure in asking our bookseller to send you a copy of the University Hymnal. According to the terms of the copyright we are not permitted to sell the Hymnal outside of Canada, and in Canada our sale must be confined to our own agents. We have used it now for the greater part of a year, and it has gained the approval of lovers of music and fine hymns.

I am,

Yours sincerely,

President.
